

Question Night

No. 4

What happens when a church does not discipline one who is committing sin?

When is this to take place?

What does Paul mean when he said, “deliver him over to Satan” in 1 Cor. 5?

Where do we draw the line between looking out for our brethren and being busybodies?

Does this relate to our relationship as “family”?

1. Am I concerned about spiritual things or physical things?
2. Am I concerned about God's will or my opinion?
3. Have I approached the person I'm concerned about or am I talking to other people unnecessarily?
4. Am I motivated by love for my brother?
5. Is my goal to provide help?
6. Am I being wise and tactful?

Satan... Who is he? Is he omniscient? Is he omnipresent? Is he capable of miracles? What are his powers? Have these powers changed over time?

Satan was an angel. Are there any other angels that changed like Satan?

1. Satan is a created being.
2. Satan has chosen to be in opposition to God.
3. Pride led Satan and his angels to rebel against God.
4. Satan and his angels are condemned to torment.
5. Satan wants others to share in his torment.
6. Satan's powers are limited by God.
7. Satan's most effective weapon is deception.

Please speak about the political situation of our country regarding Democrats trying to abolish our religious freedoms and Christians being Democrats which is contrary to Bible teaching.

I really would like to hear your thoughts on either Matthew 24:1-31, Luke 21:5-36, or both. Thanks.

Please explain John 20:22-23.
Does it relate to Matt. 16:19 or 18:18? Does it relate to the church? How so? I appreciate you. Thanks for all you do!

Baptism... Who is a candidate for baptism? Who is qualified to be a “baptizer”? Must there be a baptizer? Are all sins washed away at baptism or only specific sins for which a person has repented?
