

JONAH

AND A GRACIOUS GOD

1. Rebelling against God leads to forsaking his presence.
2. Anxiety comes when our trust is divided.
3. What we do reveals more about us than what we say.
4. Sometimes outsiders have better character than God's people.
5. Beautiful prayers mean very little without actual repentance.

6. God disciplines us to help us realize what's best for us.
7. Those who respond to God's Word may be the ones we least expect to.
8. Repentance requires acknowledging sin and turning away from it.
9. God loves our enemies just as much as he loves us.
10. We ought to care more about other people's souls than we do about our own personal comfort.

“For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.”

Matthew 12:40-41
