

The Stolen Psalm

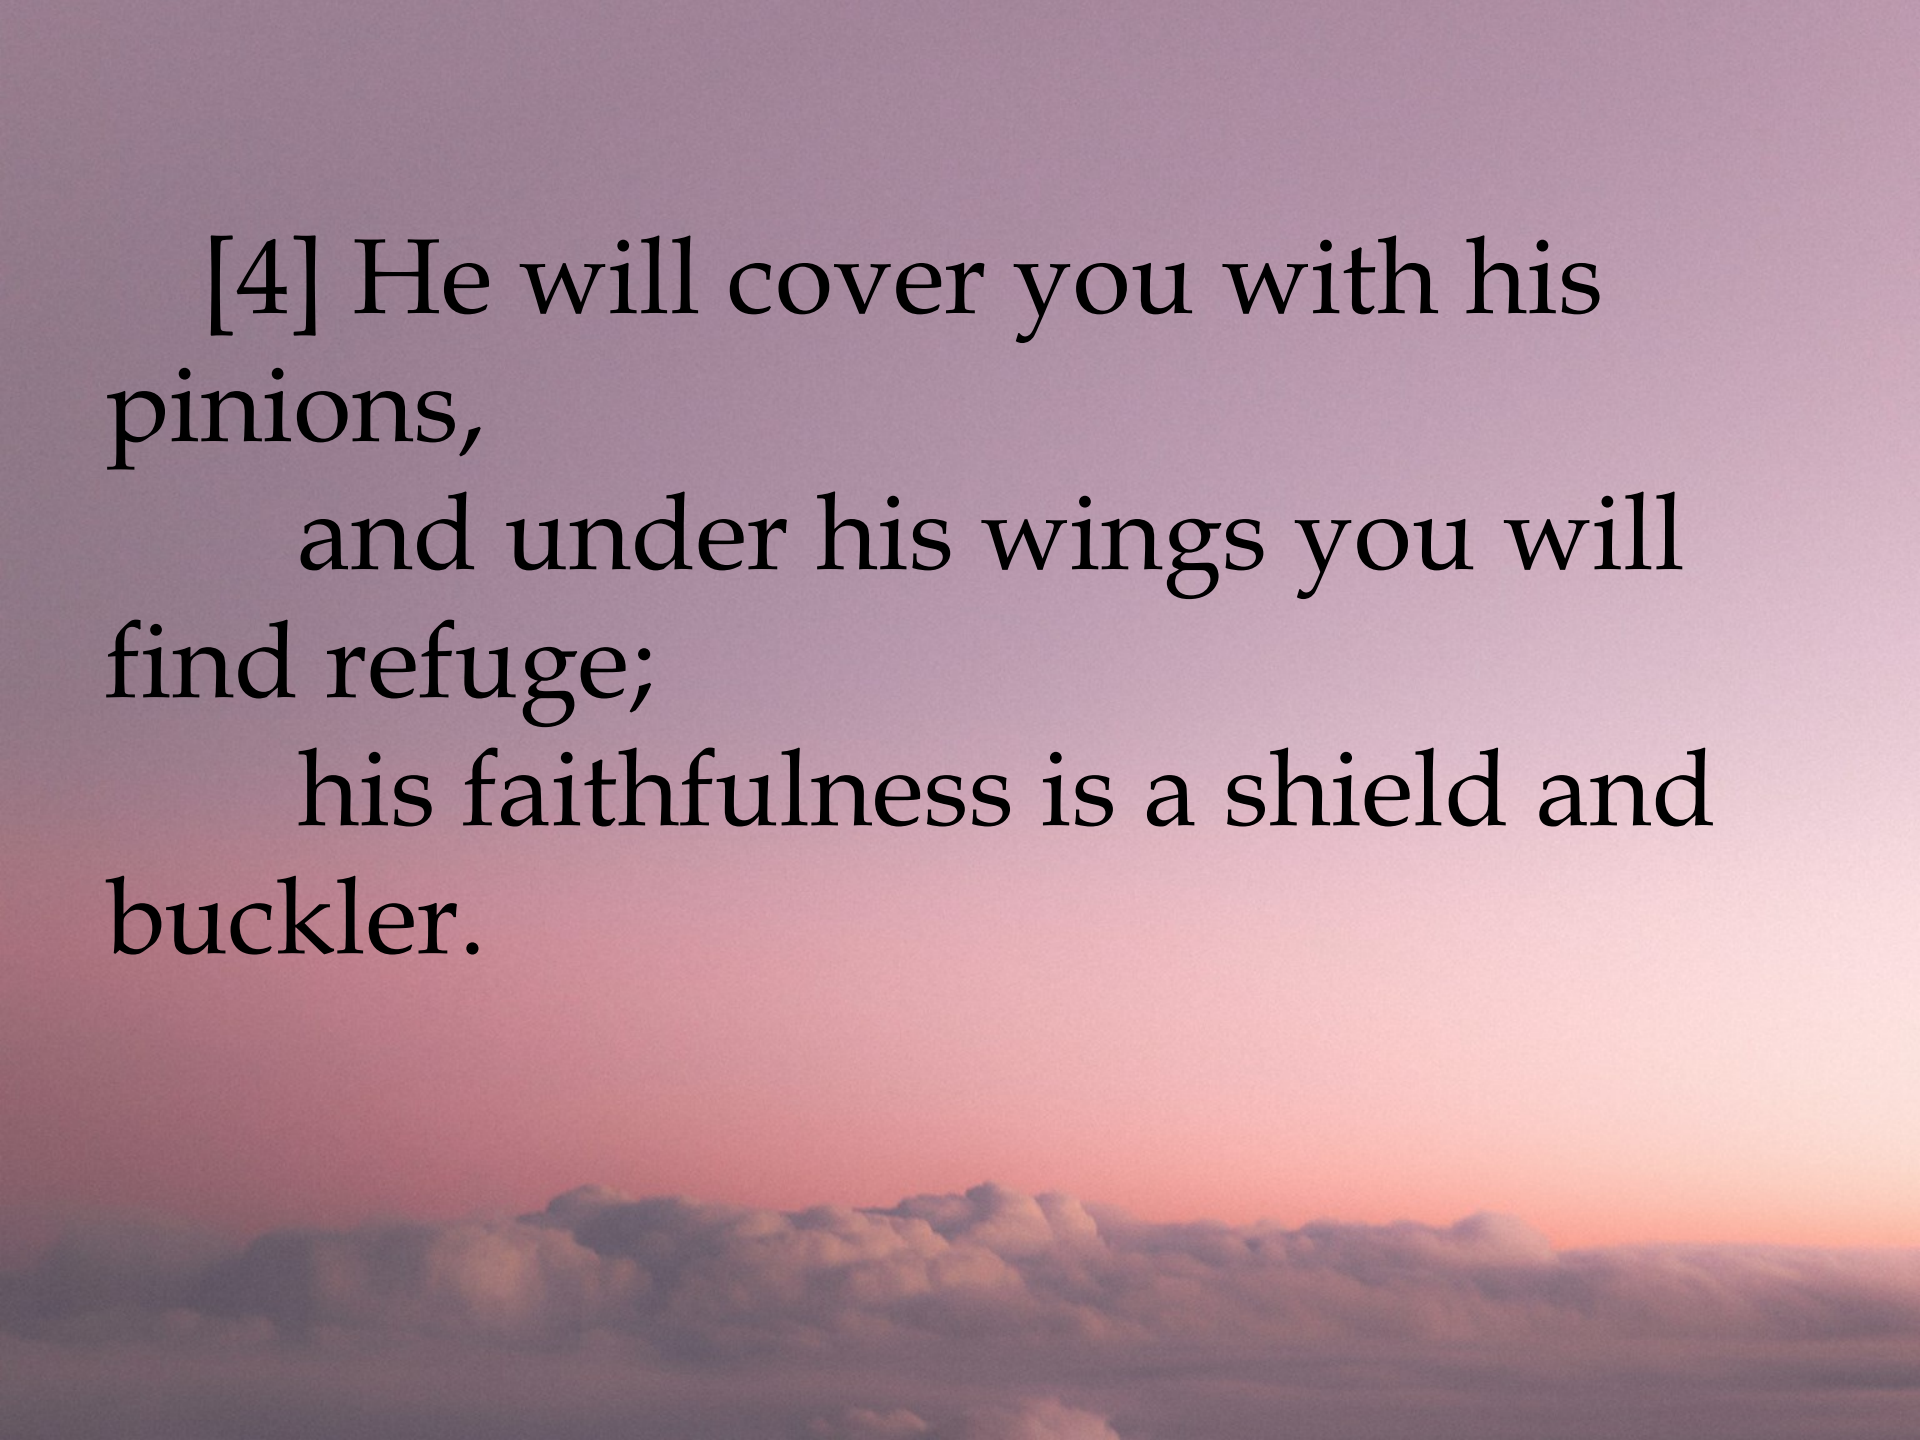

PSALM 91

[1] He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

[2] I will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

[3] For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence.

[4] He will cover you with his pinions,
and under his wings you will
find refuge;
his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.

[5] You will not fear the terror of the night,
nor the arrow that flies by day, [6] nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

[7] A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.

[8] You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

[9] Because you have made the LORD your dwelling place — the Most High, who is my refuge —

[10] no evil shall be allowed to befall you,
no plague come near your tent.

[11] For he will command his angels concerning you
to guard you in all your ways.

[12] On their hands they will bear
you up,
lest you strike your foot against a stone.

[13] You will tread on the lion
and the adder;
the young lion and the serpent
you will trample underfoot.

[14] “Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him;

I will protect him, because he knows my name.

[15] When he calls to me, I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble;

I will rescue him and honor him.

[16] With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.”
