Do you think Jesus
being born as a man
knew he was going
to die on the cross
immediately when he was born?

This may sound dumb, but did Jesus know everything or did he take notes on how to resist the Devil, like for example, when Eve was tempted and then used his “notes” to avoid being tempted in Matthew 4?

Do you think Jesus
could shape shift?
(Luke 4:30)

Did Jesus' spirit go to heaven for the 3 days before he was risen and his earthly body stayed in the tomb?

What happens
after we die?

Do you think spelling the devil's name with a capital letter gives him respect like when referring to Jesus we use "Him," or no because it is his name? Just curious.

Verses to go with why
cursing is wrong?

Do you think there are
curse words to show
how Christians are different?

Verses to go with
why drinking alcohol
is wrong?

Do you think other
denominations use
musical instruments
with their hymns
because of Exodus
15:20-21?

Can you do a lesson in the morning about verses that prove why other denominations are wrong, and one in the night that proves why other religions are wrong, with verses?

Can you tell me what is wrong with Orthodox and what verses I can find that?

I know Israelites were not supposed to take spouses from other nations.

What is your opinion of Esther marrying Ahasuerus even if he knows God exists?

Is there a certain age
where God will start
holding you accountable
for your sins?
