- Jesus was embraced by an overjoyed old man who then said he could die in peace (Luke 2:27-32).
- The citizens of Jesus' kingdom are happy to sell all that they have and be his loyal servants for the bread only he can provide (Matt. 13:44; John 6:35; 51-60; 66-69).
- Jesus' children receive a special blessing by virtue of their relationship with him (Heb. 2:10-13; Isa. 9:6).
- Jesus' family obeys his commands after he's gone (John 13:33-35; 14:15).
- What Jesus' enemies meant for evil, God meant for good (Acts 4:25-28; 1 Cor. 2:7-9; 2 Cor. 12:7-10).
