

A New Song

A scenic landscape at sunset. The foreground is filled with a field of bright yellow flowers, possibly rapeseed, in soft focus. In the middle ground, a dark, silhouetted forested hill stretches across the frame. The sky is a mix of soft blues and oranges, with the sun setting behind the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

<sup>18</sup> For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. <sup>19</sup> For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. <sup>20</sup> For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope <sup>21</sup> that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to corruption and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. <sup>23</sup> And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.
